

Journey to the Cross
A Blind Man Sees
John 9:1-12

There are certain realities in our world that are still waiting to be discovered. We don't miss them because they have not become a reality to us. We don't search for them because in our minds, there is nothing to search for. New discoveries are almost always made when we are searching for something else.

1. Blindness is a picture of our _____
 - A. We are born into _____
 - B. We are born into _____
2. Our questions often reflect our _____
 - A. We are quick to _____
 - B. We are quick to _____
3. Jesus reveals God's _____
 - A. We must _____ Jesus
 - B. We must _____ Jesus
 - C. We must _____ Jesus

John 9 is filled with gospel implications. In the blind man we see God's redemptive plan for sinful man. We are confronted with the fact that the gospel will be offensive to some to the point of rejection. We find that the same gospel that opens our eyes also hardens others' hearts, but regardless of the outcome, the gospel always glorifies God.
