

For Freedom Christ Has Set Us Free
A Cross-Centered Life
Galatians 6:11-18

No one develops their worldview in a vacuum. The way we see the world has been and continues to be influenced by outside forces. The beauty of the human psyche is that we get to decide what ideas and events will influence us in our decisions and in the way we choose to live our lives.

A cross-centered life is:

1. _____ not _____
2. Boasts in the _____ not _____
3. Treasures _____ not the _____
4. Values _____ not _____
5. Walks in _____ not _____
6. Seeks to please _____ not _____

The sum and substance of the cross-centered life are the marks of Jesus on our bodies and the grace of Jesus in our spirits. The grace of God revealed in the gospel of Jesus has not only changed our relationship with God; it has also changed our relationship with people. God forms family through the gospel and advances His kingdom through family.
