

Sharing Jesus without Freaking Out
We Are not Alone
John 15:1-5

Some of us have experienced paralysis by analysis. We think too much. While it is good to weigh the pros and cons for major life decisions, some things should not have to be analyzed. For instance, treating people with respect and love should flow from a nature and character that practices these things.

Effective evangelistic conversations _____ the unchanging gospel with the specific _____ people face.

1. Nothing we do for God is done _____
 - A. The Father _____ us
 - B. The Spirit _____ us
 - C. The Son _____ us
2. Everything we do for God starts with _____
 - A. Pray for _____ to witness
 - B. Pray in the Spirit's _____
 - C. Pray for others to _____ you
 - D. Pray for those who _____ Jesus

Everything that we do for the kingdom requires kingdom power. God uses both the spiritual resources He makes available to us and the physical talents and passions He gifts to us to make His kingdom attractive to a world that is lost and in need of a Savior. Your story starts with your embrace of the gospel. But we should always remember that this gospel came to you so that you could pass it along.

Reflection

Use the following questions to take a quick inventory of your prayer life. Are you praying regularly for God to help you live the gospel well? Are you asking God each week to help you grow in your witness? Are you praying daily and specifically for any unbelievers or asking God to introduce you to some? Are you asking God to help you overcome any fear or insecurity in sharing the gospel?
