

The Prodigal's Father
Luke 15:11-32

There is a difference between simple and easy. We make a mistake when we assume something simple is going to be easy. In fact, the simplest solutions to life's problems are often the most difficult to implement.

1. We lead with open _____
 - A. A father is a _____ provider
 - B. A father is a _____ provider
 - C. A father is a _____ provider
2. We lead with open _____
 - A. A father is willing to _____
 - B. A father is willing to _____
 - C. A father is willing to _____
3. We lead with open _____
 - A. A father offers an _____
 - B. A father offers an _____
 - C. A father offers an _____

Jesus takes the complicated and makes it simple. He provides for us the opportunity to receive eternal life based on the simple faith in the redeeming grace of God. It is a grace that is sufficient and free, and it is a grace demonstrated at the only place we can receive it—the cross of Christ.
