

The Apostles' Creed
Christ's Ascension and Return
Acts 1:1-11

Our culture loves the idea of heaven. Nothing captures our attention more than the idea of complete justice and eternal joy, a place wherever every wrong will be made right and every source of pain and suffering will be refused entry. There is great significance in the fact that our resurrected Savior is seated at the right hand of God.

1. Faith drives us to holy _____
2. Faith assures us that we are not _____
3. Faith reveals a just and _____ Judge
4. Faith promises the _____ of the King

The authority and imminent return of Jesus compels us to a sense of urgency and diligence with regard to His commands. We live in and for the love of Christ, seeking first His kingdom and His righteousness knowing that we will give an account for all that we have done. Only then will our lives become credible witnesses to the truths of the gospel that we are commanded to share with words.
