

Welcome Home
Intentional Love
Luke 10:25-37

We do not live the Christian life by accident. We are naturally drawn towards the things of the world, which means that the Christian life must be lived with intentionality. We will not stumble our way into holiness, and we will not display the fruits of the Spirit by chance. Following Jesus does not mean stumbling around in the dark hoping for a good result. Following Jesus is an intentional act of obedience.

Go _____ to love others.

1. We love others _____

2. We love others _____

3. We love others _____

We might accidentally stumble upon a situation that requires our help, but none of us are going to accidentally love and serve someone else. We only do this with intention. Let's gear our lives so that we are ready to intentionally take advantage of opportunities God brings our way to express His love to others.
