When Marriage Is Questioned
Genesis 2:18-25

Marriage is under attack. Many marriages are failing, resulting in divorce. It creates doubts that lifelong marriage is possible. Others are seeking to redefine the meaning of marriage, opening the door for same-sex marriage. With all the misunderstanding and questioning of marriage, perhaps we need to see what God says about it. He after all created it, established it, and provides the instruction for its health.

Marriage is between _____ man and _____ woman for _____.

1. Marriage is _____ in another.
2. Marriage is _____ with another.
3. Marriage is _____ to another.

God established marriage as a physical union between one man and one woman. God instituted marriage, and therefore only God can control its character and laws. No court of law can change what God has established. Marriage from God's point of view is always one man with one woman joined in a spiritual and legal union for life.
