

Jesus' Most Confounding Statements
Eat My Flesh, Drink My Blood
John 6:52-71

We are a society looking for shortcuts. We look for shortcuts in housework, yardwork, school work and career work. Modernity has produced many inventions that have made life a little easier in all of these areas. The irony is that if we make life too easy, we lose the skills to continue to innovate. We lose the ability to process and solve difficult problems.

Only Jesus has the words of _____.

1. Jesus says things that are hard to _____.
2. Jesus says things that are hard to _____.
3. Jesus says things that are hard to _____.

Jesus made our entrance into the kingdom simple, but he never said it would be easy. The modern mindset looks for shortcuts in Christianity. It looks for the path of least resistance. But Jesus makes it clear, that unless we walk the difficult path of our Master, unless we identify with Him in His death burial, and resurrection, we will not have a seat at the table.