

Get Them to Jesus
Luke 5:17-26

It is easy to get caught up in the idea of missions without realizing our personal role in the mission. Missions-mindedness is a necessary component of our Christian faith, and one that helps us send missionaries and shoe boxes around the world. But this is only one aspect of missions. Yes, it helps us get Jesus to them, but the call of every Christian is to be personally involved and invested in getting them (our friends, loved ones, coworkers) to Jesus.

1. The mission is filled with _____.
2. The mission is filled with _____.
3. The mission is filled with _____.

The invitation by Jesus to follow Him is an invitation to adventure. It is an invitation to live without fear and doubt and worry. It is an invitation to shift our allegiances from the things of this world, which Paul by the way calls rubbish, to the things of Christ. We don't have to settle for mundane. We get to live for Jesus, and we get to invite others to do the same.
