

Between Heaven and Hell
Luke 16:19-31

We are taught to avoid conversations about religion and politics because those topics are polarizing and potentially awkward. The problem with this line of thinking is that being taught to avoid talking about politics and religion has led to a lack of understanding of both. What we should have been taught was how to have a civil conversation about difficult topics.

1. The _____ of this life are lost in hell.
2. An impassable _____ stands between heaven and hell.
3. God has revealed everything needed for _____.

A person can reject Christ through outright rebellion, but rejecting Christ isn't always active. We can deny and refuse Christ through apathy, indifference, procrastination, and even ignorance. We need to realize that, however it occurs, separating ourselves from Christ in this temporary world results in separation from Christ in all eternity. It doesn't have to be this way. Christ came to seek and to save those who are lost.
