

Answers to Tough Questions
Do We Need to Defend Our Faith?
Jude 1-4, 20-25

Some people are passionate about their coffee. I mean, really passionate. They are quite capable of defending their choice of coffee and explaining the subtleties between Arabica and Robusta coffee beans. Evidently, you don't have to be a professional barista to be a coffee expert.

God can use you to show others the _____.

1. We _____ from our past; we don't _____ there.
2. We _____ our lives with Christian _____.
3. We rely on Christ who _____ and _____ us.

Faith in Christ is life changing. We need to be intentional about praying for boldness in our faith and asking forgiveness when we have been silent and unprepared to speak the truth of the gospel. We don't have to be professionals or scholars to share our faith or contend for it. We just have to be passionate about knowing Jesus and all that He has done to save us.
