

Easter at Parkview
Christ and His Empty Tomb
John 20:11-16

Throughout recorded human history we find a world filled with pain, sorrow, injustice, and oppression. Many of us live our lives from crisis to crisis, heartache to heartache. These crises and these heartaches can easily lead us down a path of hopelessness. But is that what God really meant for life to be? Is there hope beyond our bad choices? Is there hope beyond our pain?

1. Through my tears, I will see His face.
2. In my confusion, I will hear His voice.
3. In my sin, I will find His mercy.

The proof of the resurrection isn't just an empty tomb. It is found in the people of God who throughout the centuries have seen Jesus through their tears, have heard His voice in the midst of confusion, and found His forgiveness even while they were still sinners. We are an Easter people, living in the resurrected power of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
